

Grace to the Humble Outline

Session One: Living God's Will Your Way

- Addresses the dangers of trying to manipulate our own circumstances using Abraham's story of Hagar and Ishmael.
- Demonstrates how our own self-reliance can delay our experience of God's blessings and promises, and explores how humbly relying on God brings joyful blessing without the negative consequences.

Session Two: Empowered by Grace

- Explores some of the benefits of Grace revealed in Scripture and examines what we must do to experience those benefits.
- Reveals the difference between striving to do things for God and allowing God to do things through you.
- Applies God's promises made to the Israelites in Deuteronomy 31:1-8 to our own journey with Christ into our personal lands of blessing.

Session Three: Changed by Grace

- Teaches that our greatest purpose as followers of Christ is to reveal the holiness of God
- Compares God's expectations for us under the new covenant of grace with that of the old covenant under the law, revealing that God now calls us to an even higher standard. Now Christ's Spirit can (and should!) empower us to become different.
- Studies the importance of allowing Jesus to transform our hearts into His image, and offers steps to recognizing and getting free from areas of sin.
